

Sariska Getaway

2 Nights / 3 Days

Tour Code: HSRJ-18-JP-2N

Nestled in the Aravali Hills, Sariska Tiger Reserve is covered with grasslands, dry deciduous forests, cliffs, and rocky landscapes. The vast area was once the hunting preserve of the Maharaja of Alwar. The reserve is well known for its majestic Royal Bengal Tigers and was declared a National Park in 1982. It covers a large area of 800 square kilometers, 480 square kilometers of which form the core area of the national park.

The Sariska National Park circles the 'Siliserh Lake' and the 'Jai Samand Lake', which are home to various crocodiles, water snakes and different creatures of land and water. In spite of the fact that there are very few tourist destinations around Sariska, the National Park serves as the untainted getaway for the tourists looking for peacefulness and endless spans of widely varied vegetation in Jaipur, Rajasthan.

The sanctuary also houses the ruins of ancient temples of Garh-Rajor that dates back to the 11th centuries. Also a 17th-century fort on the hilltop at Kankwari grants a picturesque view of soaring vultures and eagles. Sariska park is home to numerous carnivores including , Wild Dog, Jungle Cat, Hyena, Jackal, Leopard, and Tiger. These feed on an abundance of herbivorous species such as Sambar, Nilgai, Chausingha, Chital, Wild Boar and Langur.
